

Prague, Brno and Ostrava going to MIPIM

Author: SF / pb | Published: 24.02.2009

Already on March 10, the gates of the 20th year of the real estate and investment opportunities fair MIPIM 2009 in the French Cannes will open again. The Czech Republic will be present at the fair also this year - the cities Prague, Brno, as well as Ostrava will present themselves in their own stands. At the same time, a number of investors and developers will be presented in their expositions, among them we can mention Unibail-Rodamco, CTP Invest, Multi Development, Real Spektrum, J&T or RPG Real Estate. Also the Slovak capital Bratislava is already the traditional participant at the fair.
