ProLogis rented 8000 m² of storage spaces at its ProLogis Park Bratislava to Protect Bratislava and Lagermax. Protect Bratislava, which rented 5 thousand m² from ProLogis, is the Cerva Export & Import daughter company, which belongs to the biggest wholesale sellers of protective working equipments in the Central and Eastern Europe. Lagermax Company, which rented 3 thousand m² from ProLogis, is the top Austrian company in the area of logistics and cars transportation. „ We chose the ProLogis Park Bratislava due to its strategy location,“ Andrej Bábsky, the director of Lagermax, notified. „Development of our company is directly connected with the incorporation of SR into EU. Producers spend more means for protective working equipments today, what also led to our activities increase,“ Jozef Paulen, the director of Protect Bratislava, told about the renting storage spaces.
