

100 new jobs will be established at Smižany

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 28.04.2009

The commercial-production area ought to grow-up in the industrial zone of Smižany village, in the Spišská Nová Ves district. Finalli SK s.r.o. Company plans to invest about 6.6 mills Euro to its building-up. As it results from the investment program, 100 new jobs ought to be established here. The Company plans to start-up building in the middle of this year. Its finalization is planned for year 2013. The commercial-production area will consist of four independent halls, one of them will be the commercial one and three will serve for production. One production hall will serve for the investor Finalli SK for dyeing fibres or textiles and the engineering or electrotechnical production respectively of other companies will be in the other two halls. The commercial-production area will spread on the area of 14.4 thousand m².

28.04.2009 09:09, SITA - Slovak News Agency