The multifunctional centre Lamačská brána, which is to grow in Bratislava Lamač, is newly named Bory. As said Martin Danko, the PR manager and spokesman of Private equity group Penta for SR, the historical name of the site on which it will grow is concerned. The new name was chose on the basis of the survey among inhabitants of Bratislava and its surroundings. Danko also said that they are still awaiting the authorization to begin laying engineering networks and to build infrastructure. The multifunctional complex with the purchase area, administrative, housing and leisure activities will occupy the area of 220 ha.
