

Colliers: investments department to be headed by R. Cerha

Author: SF / pb | Published: 20.04.2010

Radek Cerha (aged 33) was appointed as the Head of Investments Department of the Czech office of the consultancy Colliers International. Radek Cerha has been with Colliers International since 2000, he held the position of Head of Valuations and Consultancy. His major clients include development companies Crestyl, PPF ECM, J&T Real Estate, Karlin Group, PSJ, InterIkea and HB Reavis. He has previously worked for banks and consultancies (e.g. Raiffeisen Bank, UniCredit Bank, LBBW, ING and Deloitte) and for leading European property, pension and investment funds (Europolis, AXA Investment, Generali and ImmoEast). Radek Cerha is married and has three children.

20.04.2010 09:29, SF / pb