

Radičová presented six priorities of new government

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 10.08.2010

Iveta Radičová (from SDKÚ-DS), the Prime Minister, presented six priorities of the new government in the parliament, which should lead to better life in Slovakia. “Firstly - healthy and sustainable state economy; secondly - zero tolerance to corruption and ensuring access to justice; thirdly - sufficient job opportunities reducing social risks; fourthly - motivating business environment and active civil society; fifth - educated people and an innovative society; and sixth - access to quality medical care,” said Radičová.

10.08.2010 09:40, SITA - Slovak News Agency