Markéta Vrbasová was appointed as the European Business Development Manager at PointPark Properties (P3). Markéta Vrbasová worked in the area of property lease for several years. After graduating from university, majoring in economics and management, she spent five years in Great Britain and South Africa where she worked on the implementation of new projects in the construction of residential properties. After returning to the Czech Republic, she worked at the property development company Lordship Estates from where she moved to Pinnacle. In 2009, Pinnacle was bought by its current owner - the Bahraini investment bank Arcapita - who subsequently rebranded the company as PointPark Properties (P3).

The company PointPark Properties (P3) is a property developer, manager and operator of distribution centres currently operating in 11 countries. Over 1,5 million sqm in 72 distribution centres are currently under their administration.
