

Richard Hogg partner at Cushman & Wakefield

Author: SF / pb | Published: 15.02.2011

Richard Hogg (33), head of valuations and consulting team in CZ and SK, has become partner at Cushman & Wakefield. Hogg has more than eight years of experience in valuation in the Czech and Slovak markets. He previously worked as head of valuations at DTZ. Earlier he worked in the London C & W office in the hotel and property valuation department. He joined Prague C&W office as head of valuations and advisory services in 2007. Richard Hogg has a bachelor's degree in property management from Nottingham Trent University. He is a professional member of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) and a member of its management in the Czech Republic.

15.02.2011 09:39, SF / pb