

Rastislav Němec strengthened KPMG team

Author: SITA / jup | Published: 29.03.2011

Rastislav Němec has become new manager of the Consulting Department for financial service sector at KPMG Slovakia spol. s r.o., operating within the Performance & Technology division. He came to KPMG Slovakia from Capgemini, where he was director of Consulting Department for financial service sector. At KPMG, he will be responsible for strategic and management consulting for companies in the field of IT optimizing and efficiency.

The Consulting Department for Financial Service Sector provides support to banks, insurance companies and other companies operating in the financial services sector, in the area of business strategies, increasing sales effectiveness, human resources management, financial and regulatory reporting, as well as efficient use of information technology. KPMG in Slovakia is a leading audit and advisory company, an independent member of KPMG International. It has operated in Slovakia since 1991. It currently employs over 300 people and has 11 partners.

29.03.2011 09:30, SITA / jup