

CBRE team expanded

Author: SF / pb | Published: 05.04.2011

CB Richard Ellis announced appointment of Barbora Cassandrová as retail lease agent and Lenka Šafaříková as junior agent in the office leasing department. Barbora Cassandrová (35) will be responsible for renting retail space and will focus mainly on retail parks in the regions. Barbara brings a decade of experience in real estate, acquired at Ahold and Tesco. Barbara graduated from Richmond upon Thames College in London, she speaks English and Italian. Her hobbies include travelling and music.

Lenka Šafaříková (29) joined CB Richard Ellis as team assistant in autumn 2010. She was now appointed junior agent and will be responsible for renting office projects. Prior to joining CB Richard Ellis, Lenka worked in Great Britain for a residential property developer. Lenka speaks English and her hobbies include sport, nature and reading.

05.04.2011 10:47, SF / pb