In connection with the 10th General Meeting of the Association of Real Estate Market Development (ARTN), Administrative and Supervisory Boards were elected for another term. Association management hasn't changed much. Zdeňka Klapalová, director and partner at Czech Knight Frank office was re-appointed as president of ARTN; Jan Sadil, general director of Hypoteční banka remains its vice-president. Board members remain Gabriel Achour, partner at law firm Achour & Hájek; Tomáš Drtina, director of Incoma GfK; Tomáš Kulman, consultant at KPMG Czech Republic; Jiří Pácal, director of Central Europe Holding; Radek Pokorný, managing director of Agana Group; Zdeněk Válka, director of Czech and Slovak branch of Stewart Title Limited and Karel Žalský, managing director of Interprospekt CZ. The Supervisory Board also remains unchanged. Kamil Kosman (director of Real estate transactions at Česká spořitelna) was re-elected as its chairman. Michal Šourek, head of MS Group was appointed as vice-chairman, and Aleš Vobruba, vice-president of Orco Property Group, was appointed as a member.
