

New managers at King Sturge

Author: SF / pb | Published: 10.05.2011

Markéta Hodaňová (35) has become new head of Asset & Property Management department. Her task will be managing an internal team and expanding client portfolio of King Sturge in the field of real estate management. Markéta Hodaňová graduated from University of Economics and she has ten years of experience in managerial positions in the Czech real estate market. Before joining King Sturge she worked at TK Development, Carrefour and Cenor Group, where she was in charge of commercial properties. Markéta is married and her hobbies include sport (especially cross-country skiing and water polo). She speaks fluent English.

The head of valuations department at the Prague branch of King Sturge is Stuart Jordan (30), who will focus on providing quality services to existing and new clients in the Czech and Slovak real estate market. Stuart Jordan graduated from Nottingham Trent University in the UK, he is a member of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and he has five years experience in real estate valuation in the Czech and Central European real estate market. He previously worked as head of valuations department at Cushman & Wakefield and as asset manager at Endurance Fund within Orco Property Group platform. Stuart is single, his hobbies include cricket, photography and travelling. He can speak some Czech.

Michaela Mácová (28) took up the newly created position of Business Development Coordinator, where she will be responsible for coordinating client services in Central Europe. Michaela Mácová graduated from Faculty of Education at Charles University. Between 2006-2007 she worked for Tempo Training & Consulting as project manager and from 2007 for Sodexo. Michaela is single and her free time is devoted to culture (photography, dancing, reading, music and theatre). She speaks fluent English and French.

---

10.05.2011 08:46, SF / pb