The companies Panattoni and Standard Life Investment have sold logistics complex Panattoni D5 Logistics Park to NBGi Private Equity fund for EUR 36 million. The transaction was brokered by consultancy Jones Lang LaSalle. The logistics park is located near Stříbro, by the exit 107 from D5 motorway. It offers a total of 62,000 sqm of modern storage and manufacturing space. Its largest tenants include Lear Corporation (production, car industry), Leoni neumatic (manufacturing, electronics industry) and ASSA Abloy (manufacturing, consumer goods). "Transactions worth EUR 1.8 billion were concluded in the Czech Republic as of today; EUR 471 million were spent on industrial properties which is a quarter of the total annual investment volume," Dušan Šťastník from Jones Lang LaSalle commented on the transaction.
