

B. Skalický heading to AFI Europe

Author: SF / pb | Published: 27.03.2012

Bedřich Skalický will be responsible for lease of all AFI Europe projects in the Czech Republic. He gained his work experience in property development primarily as chairman and CEO of Realitní společnost České spořitelny. Bedřich Skalický graduated from University of Economics in Prague and continued his studies of economics at Boston University. He then worked as Real Estate Manager for Czech and Slovak McDonald's, where he was in charge of creating strategic development of restaurant chain in CR, sites survey, market research and opening new restaurants. In the following years, he worked for TK Development and from 2003 - 2009 he was the head of Realitní společnost České spořitelny.

27.03.2012 09:12, SF / pb