

The Eurovia-Cesty Company will extent the urban sewage network at Strážne

Author: SITA - Slovak News Agency | Published: 27.01.2009

The winner of the public tender for the extension of the urban sewage system, announced by the town Strážske at the end of September 2008, became the Eurovia-Cesty, a.s. Company, Košice with final price of 2.484 mills €, 19-percentage VAT involved. Building-up the sewage network - house drains, sewage branches with their flow into the existing sewage system is totally in the length of 4 800 m, whereas the outer sewerage is to reach 4 231 m and branches 569 m. The component of the order object is also building-up low-voltage terminal in 709 m length and reconstruction of roadways as well.

The building product construction should launch in March 2009 and finish in December 2010 according to information issued on September 2008. The order object will be financed from own sources of public procurer and from Euro funds - from the Operational program Environment - according to VVO.

27.01.2009 10:32, SITA - Slovak News Agency