The project of the building-up of the business-entertaining centre City Park at Nitra is maybe not terminated definitely yet. As Štefan Štefek, the Nitra vice-major, informed, the investor is looking for ways how to realize it in spite of the crisis. One of the possibilities is allocation of the build-up to several phases. Currently the Nitra riverbank in Brezový háj is disfigured by the unfinished build-up. „We do not want so as just the skeleton would remain there. I think that banks have money, but the partner for the project that is not loaded by provisional remedy can be looked for hardly and there is lawsuit to parcels,“ Štefek told.

The building-up of City Park started in year 2007 and it ought to be finished in year 2009 according to the investor, Euro City Park, A.S. intentions. However, the company has suspended it based on the decision of its shareholders. It adduced financial problems like the reason, which caused aggravation of conditions for obtaining credit as well as lawsuits to parcels, for which inhabitants assume the right.
